- 6.2 The Board discussed this issue at length. Board members agreed for the need for a 'Positive Parenting' approach to be adopted and communicated. There were however issues noted from a number of members in respect of Arm's Length Bodies being able to come to a particular position on proposed Government changes to legislation. As such it would be difficult to propose a unaminous view from the SBNI that the defence of 'Reasonable Chastisement should be be removed from law.

The Chair acknowledged the fine line required in relation to the SBNI response on this matter, particularly regarding the Arms Length Bodies of the Departments of Health (DoH) and Justice (DoJ) commenting on their policy agenda.

Ms Kelly stated that SBNI had taken a position on this matter twice in the past and that on this ocassion she was not asking for the SBNI to lobby the Minister, rather for engagement in the form of social media highlighting why our children should enjoy equal protection under the law and to raise public understanding of this issue.

Mr Whittle suggested that the SBNI could articulate its persepctive by public messaging on positive parenting as an alternative to the use of physical sanctions on children.

The Chair agreed to write to the Minister for Justice in relation to the removal of the defence of reasonable chastisement from the perspective of the importance of safeguarding and protecting the most vulnerable within clear and unambiguous boundaries.

BM47-06.21BM

Members agreed that this was a matter for agencies to repond individually on, in order to make their views known to the Justice Minister.
